MANAGER HEIJI - PERSONAL USE ONLY

Reading

The day finally came to choose the new king. All the people put their best foot forward, hoping to be chosen. When John saw the other villagers holding beautiful portraits of the king, he had butterflies in his stomach. He was afraid King Sam would be angry because he came with just a mirror.

The King finally arrived. His red royal cloak was bright and he kept a straight face. King Sam walked around slowly looking at all the portraits, one by one. All of them had a big picture of him in his red royal cloak.

King Sam came to John and saw him holding a mirror. John said, "I was sure I could draw the most beautiful portrait, Your Majesty but nothing that I drew was perfect. So today, I brought you a golden mirror."

King Sam looked into the mirror and saw an image of himself. He was delighted with the clever idea. The King declared, "Look at me. The reflection in the mirror is perfect." On that day, King Sam proclaimed John as the next King.

(Adapted from The King's Decision)

Answer the questions.

- Why did King Sam need to find an heir to his throne?
- What was King Sam's passion?
- Why was John the first to arrive at the palace?
- Find the idiom in the passage that has the same meaning as:
 - was nervous
 - wanted to make a good impression
 - looked serious
- Do you think it is fair for the king to proclaim John as the next king? Why?
